

Nursing assistant – per diem (alternate weekends and holidays required)

The hospital is looking for a per diem nursing assistant for its med/surg department.

Requirements include:

- High school graduate or equivalent work experience, including ability to read, write and comprehend medical terminology
- Previous experience as a nurse's aide preferred with ability to work all shifts.
- High level of interpersonal skills to interact with patients, families, clinic staff, supporting agencies; ability to collaborate with other health personnel.
- Highly motivated, able to work outside the normal working hours as volume demands.
- Able to handle multiple priorities simultaneously.
- Strong organizational skills.

Competitive salary and benefit package.

Contact:

Rae Sicola, human resources assistant

518-873-3095

rsicola@ech.org